Philoptochos Mission

Ecumenical Patriarch Athenagoras I, who was serving as Archbishop of North and South America, established the Greek Orthodox Ladies Philoptochos Society, Inc. as the duly accredited women's philanthropic society of the Greek Archdiocese of America in November 1931.

Our Mission Statement

To aid the poor, the destitute, the hungry, the aged, the sick, the unemployed, the orphaned, the imprisoned, the widowed, and victims of disasters.

To undertake the burial of impoverished persons and to offer assistance to any who may need the help of the Church through fundraising efforts.

To promote charitable, benevolent, and philanthropic purposes of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America through instructional programs, presentations, lectures, seminars, and other educational resources.

To preserve and perpetuate Orthodox traditions, in accordance with its doctrines, canons, discipline, divine worship, usages and customs.

To promote participation in the activities of the Greek Orthodox community, in cooperation with the Parish Priest and the Parish Council.

Our Aims and Purposes

- Philanthropy
- Propagation of the Faith
- Education and Training
